

Recommended French Summer Activities

The best way to keep up your language skills is to get some exposure every day! Choose from the activities below to stay connected to French all summer long.

|   |   |  |   |
|---|---|--|---|
| Spend some time on the Duolingo app building skills and exploring the “Stories” feature. Try to keep a streak going all summer!         | Follow some French-language accounts on social media. Check out FranceInter, BrutOfficiel, Konbini, Vice France, FranceCulture, and TV5Monde. | Watch a French show on Netflix (another list here ). The Circle: France and Nailed It! France are now available! | Spend some time exploring French-language music. You can find some Spotify playlists here: pop/dance , hip hop/rap , indie/electronica , old standards . Follow artists you like! |
| Try out a yoga , zumba , pilates , dance , or bootcamp class in French. | Watch a short video from the French-speaking world on TV5Monde and answer comprehension questions.                            | Read an article/watch a video about current events on ljourlactu .   | Dig into a French pop song on LyricsTraining . (Start at the beginner level and you can move up from there!)  |
| Practice your pronunciation with the ielanguages website. You can record yourself and compare your speech to native French speakers.    | Listen to the daily news in the 10-minute “ Journal en Français Facile ” broadcast.   | Visit an art museum in Paris through the virtual collection: Le Louvre Musée D'Orsay   | Listen to/watch a folktale from Cameroon, Senegal, Côte d'Ivoire, and elsewhere on TV5Monde .   |
| Check out this list of French podcasts , ranging from beginner to advanced levels   | Explore the recipes on Marmiton and choose one to prepare (you can search by ingredients).                                    | For beginning readers, check out some familiar childrens’ stories (and have them read aloud to you) in French on The French Experiment .                         | For more intermediate readers, find a French translation of a book you know in your native language. Advanced readers, check out this list of books .   |